Introduction

Welcome to the Barbie Career Support App! This interactive application brings your favorite Barbie characters to life, offering personalized support and advice based on different professions. With the power of a large language model (LLM), Barbie channels her many iconic roles, from teacher to astronaut, doctor, and more, to provide insights, motivation, and helpful tips for users of all ages.

User Guide

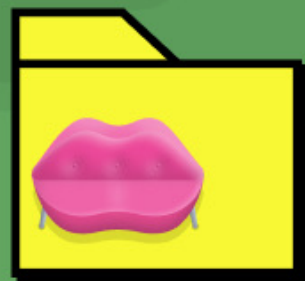

Whether you're seeking career guidance or just need a little encouragement, Barbie is here to empower you with wisdom.

From her wide array of professional personas. And don't forget Ken - he's always there to cheer you on with a hearty "Yes, yes, I support you!"
